D.C. Solar Congress

Saturday April 14, 2018

9:30 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

UDC – David A. Clarke School of Law
4340 Connecticut Ave, NW

RSVP at: www.SolarUnitedNeighbors.org/DCSolarCongress

The D.C. Solar Congress is a free public conference that brings together solar supporters from across D.C. to learn and discuss the current state and future for solar energy in the District. The day will include a series of presentations about solar technology and policy topics as well as ways to get involved with helping to grow solar in D.C.

Topics will include: solar 101 information session, DC's Solar for All program, grid modernization, battery storage in the residential setting, emerging D.C. solar policy initiatives, and much more! The event will conclude with a participatory open forum discussion for all attendees to discuss priorities and opportunities that solar supporters in D.C. should focus on in the coming year.

This event is FREE and open to the public. Everyone is welcome to attend!

Whether you're a solar homeowner, completely new to solar, or somewhere in between – this event is for you!

The D.C. Solar Congress will be hosted by
